

U-M International Landscape

Many units across the University of Michigan contribute to the university's international engagement. This document provides a snapshot of units engaged in education abroad, international student and scholar support, international partnerships, international and area studies, international philanthropy and alumni engagement, and more.

